

Research Project Oral Presentation Rubric

Each team has 10 minutes to state their case or tell their story. Any follow-up questions from instructors will be sent via email and the team is expected to answer in a timely manner (within 48 hours)

Everyone needs to arrive on time, latecomers will be penalized 1 pt (from your final grade)

Content 40%	Possible points 40	Points awarded _____
Demonstration of Final Visualization included 5
Accurate knowledge of topic is demonstrated 5
Presentation reflects adequate research 10
Research results are well integrated into the talk 5
Visualization elements included and discussed 5
Oral presentation content aligns with project topic 5
The main issues are organized in a coherent manner 5
Organization 20%	Possible points 20	Points awarded _____
Material and visual aids in presentation are arranged and presented logically with the main points following a coherent pattern. 15
There is a definite beginning and succinct ending. 5
Visualization Aids 40%	Possible points 30	Points awarded _____
Visualization aids are big enough to read and easy to interpret (with verbal explanation provided) 15
Visuals are complete with correct citations, captions and x&y axes labeled 10
Visuals are well-integrated into the presentation. 15
Balance of Work/Speaking 10%	Possible points 10	Points awarded ____
Project workload shared equally by all team members and each team member will present (at least) what they worked on 5
Students maintain good eye contact with audience and speak audibly 5

